Approximately 33,000 male residents of the territory will be required to register for military service on July 31, according to figures compiled by the registration board recently appointed by the governor and headed by Will Wayne, secretary to the chief executive.

The next meeting of the board of registration will be held Thurs day afternoons at which time the members will confer with Sheriff Charles H. Rose, County Clerk David Kalauokalani and the county physician with regard to the part they will play in the registration. Little or no prouble is anticipated by the board in arranging the preliminary work which will precede the registration, as nearly 200
